APPOINTMENTS.

"PUBLIC INQUIRIES ACT."

HIS HONOUR the Administrator in Council has been pleased to appoint JAMES M. COADY, Esquire, barrister-at-law, of Vancouver, a sole Commissioner to inquire into the following matters in addition to the matters set forth in Order in Council No. 24, approved on January 6th, 1937, notice of which appeared in The British Columbia Gazette of January 14th, 1937, page 59:—

- Into the question whether it is in the public interest to allow a kinematograph to be operated in a moving-picture theatre that has no rewind-room:
- Into the question whether it is in the public interest to hold examinations for projectionists' licences elsewhere than in the examining-room of the Board of Examiners at Vancouver, and by less than the full Board of Examiners:
- Into the question whether it is desirable in the public interest to reduce the period for which temporary permits may be granted from one year to sixty days, and whether the permit shall be restricted to the moving-picture theatre in which the permittee is working at the time the permit is granted:
- Into all matters incidental to the matters aforesaid.

The first sitting of the Commission will be held on May 17th, 1937, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, in the Court-house, Vancouver.

G. M. WEIR,
Provincial Secretary.

Provincial Secretary's Office,
May 5th, 1937. 428-my13

May 3rd, 1937.

HIS HONOUR the Administrator in Council has been pleased to appoint DAVID WILLIAM ROWLANDS, of Kamloops, as a Stipendiary Magistrate in and for the Counties of Yale and Cariboo. 425-my13

A PROCLAMATION.

T. D. PATTULLO, { Attorney-General. } WHEREAS the Administrator of the Government of Our Province of British Columbia, by and with the advice of the Executive Council, has been pleased to direct, by Order in Council in that behalf, that Proclamations issued pursuant to section 3 of the "Animals Act," as enacted by section 2 of chapter 5 of the Statutes of British Columbia of 1920, on the dates hereinafter mentioned and published in The British Columbia Gazette, respecting the Cariboo-Kamloops-Nicola District therein described, be revoked, namely:—

Proclamation, April 28th, 1921; Gazette of 1921, page 1459:

Proclamation May 12th, 1934; Gazette of 1936, page 785:

And whereas, pursuant to the said section 3 of the said "Animals Act," as re-enacted, the Administrator of the Government of Our said Province has been pleased further to direct, by and with the advice of the Executive Council, that a Proclamation be issued and published in The British Columbia Gazette defining the following area of land in the said Province as a district to be known as the "Cariboo and North Thompson District," and in which bulls over one year old of the beef breeds and of good beef type may be allowed to run at large:—

CARIBOO AND NORTH THOMPSON DISTRICT.

Commencing at the junction of Deadman Creek and the Thompson River; thence northerly following Deadman Creek to its intersection with the 51st parallel of latitude; thence north-westerly to the headwaters of Loon Creek; thence south-westerly following Loon Creek to its junction with the Bonaparte River; thence westerly to Kelly Lake; thence south-westerly following Cutoffvalley Creek to the Fraser River; thence north-westerly following the Fraser River to its junction with Watson Bar Creek; thence south-westerly crossing the Yalakom and Bridge Rivers to the headwaters of Cadwallader Creek; thence north-westerly following the divide between Bridge River and Lillooet River to the 51st parallel of latitude; thence west following the 51st parallel of latitude to the 125th meridian of longitude; thence north along said 125th meridian of longitude to the headwaters of the Chilako River; thence following the Chilako River to its junction with Chehischic Creek; thence east to the Fraser River; thence following the Fraser River to its junction with Cottonwood River; thence in an easterly direction along said river to its intersection near Cottonwood with the northerly boundary of the "Quesnel to Barkerville" Highway; thence easterly along said boundary to its intersection near Barkerville with the west boundary of the "Barkerville to Bowron Lake" Highway; thence in a northerly direction along said boundary to its intersection with the westerly bank of Bowron River; thence in a northerly direction to Indianpoint River; thence south-easterly to the head of Isaac Lake; thence following the divide between Isaac Lake and the Fraser River and continuing south-easterly to the headwaters of Clearwater River; thence in a southerly direction following the divide between the East Arm of Quesnel Lake and Hobson Lake and continuing southerly along the divide between Clearwater Lake and Crooked Lake to the 52nd parallel of latitude; thence eastward following the 52nd parallel of latitude to the divide between the Columbia River and the North Thompson River; thence following the said divide to the north end of Seymour Arm; thence following the west shore of Seymour Arm in a southerly and westerly direction to the Thompson River; thence following the South Thompson River to its junction with the North Thompson River; thence westerly following the Thompson River to the point of commencement at the junction of Deadman Creek.

Now KNOW YE that, in pursuance of the said section 3 of the said "Animals Act," as re-enacted, the aforescribed area of land, to be known as the "Cariboo and North Thompson District," be defined as an area of land in which bulls over one year old of the beef breeds and of good beef type may be allowed to run at large from the first day of July to the first day of November, both dates inclusive, in each year.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, We have caused these Our Letters to be made Patent and the Great Seal of Our said Province to be hereunto affixed.

WITNESS, the Honourable AULAY MACAULAY MORRISON, Administrator of the Government of Our said Province of British Columbia, in Our City of Victoria, in Our said Province, this tenth day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven, and in the first year of Our Reign.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring  $10\frac{3}{4}$  inches by  $7\frac{1}{2}$  inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.

(m.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any concessions, decrees, and contracts for or in relation to the construction, execution, carrying-out, equipment, improvement, management, administration, or control of public works and conveniences of all kinds, and to undertake, execute, carry out, dispose of, or otherwise turn to account the same:

(n.) To purchase or otherwise acquire any patents, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions, and the like, conferring an exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use any secret or other information as to any invention that may seem to the Company capable of being profitably dealt in, and to use, exercise, develop, grant licences in all respects, or vend or otherwise turn to account all or any of such patents, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions, and the like; and with a view to the working and development of the same, to carry on any business, whether manufacturing or otherwise, which the Company may think calculated, directly or indirectly, to effectuate these objects:

(o.) To pay for any property, rights, or services acquired by the Company either in cash or shares, with or without preferred or deferred rights in respect of dividend or repayment of capital or otherwise, or by any securities which the Company has power to issue or partly to issue, or partly in one mode and partly in another, and generally upon such terms as the directors may determine, including granting options of taking up shares of the Company:

(p.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, enfranchise, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company:

(q.) To establish or promote or concur in establishing or promoting any other company whose objects shall include the acquisition and taking-over of all or any of the assets and liabilities of or the carrying-on any business or operation which the Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or shall be in any manner calculated to advance, directly or indirectly, the objects or interests of the Company, and to acquire and hold shares, stock, or securities of, and guarantee the payment of any securities issued by, or any other obligations of any such company:

(r.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake all or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of the Company:

(s.) To enter into any partnership or any joint-purse arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, joint adventure, or co-operation with or agency for any company, firm, or person carrying on or engaged in, or proposing to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction within the objects of the Company, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company:

(t.) To amalgamate with any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(u.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, debenture stock, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(v.) To buy or otherwise acquire, issue, place, sell, or otherwise deal in stocks, shares, bonds, debentures, and securities of all kinds, and to give any guarantee or security in relation thereto or otherwise:

(w.) To draw, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue bills of exchange, promissory notes, debentures, bills of lading, and other negotiable or transferable instruments or securities:

(x.) To invest its moneys, and generally to lend and advance its money to any person or company for the purpose of financing his or its undertaking, whether for a speculative nature or otherwise, without security, or upon such securities and terms and subject to such conditions as may seem expedient, and to guarantee the performance of any contract by any person or company:

(y.) Generally to engage in any branch of mining, smelting, milling, and refining minerals:

(z.) To borrow or raise money for the purpose of the Company's business:

(aa.) To mortgage and charge the undertaking and all or any of the real and personal property, present and future, and all or any of the uncalled capital for the time being of the Company; to issue debentures, mortgage debentures, and debenture stock, payable to bearer or otherwise, and either permanent or redeemable or repayable:

(bb.) To distribute among the members in specie any property of the Company or any proceeds of sale or disposal of any property of the Company, and for such purpose to distinguish and separate capital from profits, but so that no distribution amounting to a reduction of capital be made except with the sanction (if any) for the time being required by law:

(cc.) To procure the Company to be registered, incorporated, or otherwise duly constituted or recognized, if necessary or advisable, according to the law of the United Kingdom or of any other Dominion, State, Province, or Dependency, or of any foreign country:

(dd.) To enter into any arrangements or contracts with any Governments or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(ee.) To establish and support or aid in the establishment and support of associations, institutions, funds, trusts, and conveniences calculated to benefit any of the employees or ex-employees of the Company, or any of the dependents or connections of any such persons, and to grant to any such persons, dependents, or connections pensions and allowances, and to make payments towards insurance thereof respectively, and generally to subscribe or guarantee money to or for charitable or benevolent objects, or to or for any exhibition, or to or for any public, general, or useful object:

(ff.) To obtain any provisional order, ordinance, or Act of Parliament, or any Act or Ordinance of or grant or licence from any foreign or other Government, State, Legislature, or department or municipality, for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests:

(gg.) To appoint from time to time, either with full or restricted powers of sub-delegation and either with or without remuneration, agents, attorneys, local or managing directors, or other persons or corporations, under power of attorney or otherwise, within or outside British Columbia, for the purpose of carrying out and completing all or any of the objects of the Company as mentioned in this memorandum of association, and of arranging, conducting, or managing the business or businesses of the Company, or any matter or concern whatsoever in which the Company is now or may from time to time be or become or be about to become interested or concerned, with the same or more limited powers than the directors of the Company have, and to delegate such powers of appointment to any person or persons, company or corporation, and from time to time to revoke and cancel all or any such appointments or delegations, and to remove any person or corporation appointed thereunder:

(hh.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through agents or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(ii.) To transfer to or otherwise cause to be vested in any company or person or persons all or any of the lands and property of the Company, to be held in trust for the Company or on such trusts for working, developing, or disposing of the same as may be considered expedient:

(jj.) To pay the cost, charges, and expenses preliminary and incidental to the formation, establishment, and registration of the Company, and to remunerate, by commission, brokerage, granting of options of taking up shares of the Company, or otherwise, any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in relation to the formation and establishment of the Company or the conduct of its business, or placing or assisting to place or guaranteeing the placing of any shares in or debentures or other securities of the Company:

(kk.) To do all such things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them; and the intention is that the objects specified in each of the paragraphs of this clause shall, unless otherwise therein provided, be regarded as independent objects, and shall be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company:

(ll.) And it is hereby declared that the word "company" in this clause, when not applied to this Company, shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, political, mercantile, or otherwise, whether incorporated or not incorporated, whether domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere, whether existing or hereafter to be formed:

(mm.) Nothing contained in this memorandum shall be deemed to give the Company power to do anything which is prohibited by section 18 of the "Companies Act" or to carry on any business to which the said Act does not apply.

The address of its registered office is 308 Randall Building, 535 Georgia Street West, Vancouver, B.C.

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(a.) To purchase, take on lease or in exchange, or otherwise acquire any lands and buildings, and any estate or interest in and any rights connected with any such lands and buildings, to develop and turn to account any land acquired by or in which the Company is interested, and in particular by laying out and preparing the same for building purposes, constructing, altering, pulling down, decorating, maintaining, furnishing, fitting up, and improving buildings, and by planting, paving, draining, farming, cultivating, letting on building lease or building agreement, and by advancing money to and entering into contracts and arrangements of all kinds with builders, tenants, and others; to construct, maintain, improve, develop, work, control, and manage any waterworks, gasworks, reservoirs, roads, electric power, heat, and light supply works, telephone-works, hotels, restaurants, baths, places of worship, places of amusement, pleasure-grounds, parks, gardens, reading-rooms, stores, shops, dairies, and other works and conveniences which the Company may think, directly or indirectly, conducive to these objects, and to contribute or otherwise assist or take part in the construction, maintenance, development, working, control, and management thereof; to carry on all or any of the following businesses, namely: Builders and contractors, decorators, merchants, and dealers in stone, sand, lime, bricks, timber, hardware, and other building requisites, brick and tile and terra-cotta makers, jobmasters, carriers, licensed victuallers, and house agents; to lend money, either with or without security, and generally to such persons and upon such terms and conditions as the Company may think fit, and in particular to persons undertaking to build on or improve any property in which the Company is interested, and to tenants, builders, and contractors:

(b.) To purchase for investment or resale and to traffic in land and house and other property of any tenure and any interest therein, and to create, sell, and deal in freehold and leasehold ground-rents, and to make advances upon the security of land or house or other property or any interest therein, and generally to deal in, traffic by way of sale, lease, exchange, or otherwise with land and house property and any other property, whether real or personal:

(c.) To acquire by purchase, lease, exchange, or otherwise land, buildings, and hereditaments of any tenure or description, and any estate or interest therein, and any rights over or connected with land so situate, and to turn the same to account as may seem expedient, and in particular by preparing buildings, building-sites, and by constructing, reconstructing, altering, improving, decorating, furnishing, and maintaining office, flats, houses, factories, warehouses, shops, wharves, buildings, works, and conveniences of all kinds, and by consolidating or connecting or subdividing properties, and by leasing and disposing of the same:

(d.) To manage land, buildings, and other property situate as aforesaid, whether belonging to the Company or not, and to collect rents and income, and to supply to tenants, occupiers, and others, refreshments, attendance, messengers, light, waiting-rooms, reading-rooms, meeting-rooms, lavatories, laundry conveniences, electric conveniences, stables, and other advantages:

(e.) To purchase or acquire property of any and every kind whatsoever, and to pay for the same by the issuance and delivery to the seller of shares, bonds, debentures, or debenture stock of the Company, and for such purposes to issue shares, debentures, or debenture stock:

(f.) To carry on any business as brokers, financiers, and as agents for guarantors, securities, and loan companies, fire, life, accident, and marine insurance companies, and agents for any other branch of the insurance business (subject to the laws and regulations in force in the Province of British Columbia respecting insurance), and to undertake, carry on, and execute all kinds of financial operations, and to carry on the business of agents or attorneys for any person, firm, or corporation engaged in any branch of financial, industrial, or commercial business, upon such terms as to remuneration as may be agreed; provided any such powers do not conflict with the "Bank Act," or the "Trust Companies Act" or the "Insurance Act" of British Columbia:

(g.) To carry on a general construction business, including the business of architects and engineers in all their branches, subject to the provisions and conditions of the "Architects Act," R.S.B.C. 1924, and amending Acts, and subject to the "Engineering Act," R.S.B.C. 1924, and amending Acts:

(h.) To erect and construct houses, buildings, or works of every description on any land of the Company or upon any other lands or hereditaments, and to pull down, rebuild, enlarge, alter, and improve existing houses, buildings, or works thereon; to convert and appropriate any such land into and for roads, streets, squares, gardens, and pleasure-grounds and other conveniences, and generally to deal with and improve the property of the Company:

(i.) To sell, lease, let, mortgage, or otherwise dispose of the lands, houses, buildings, and hereditaments as principals or agents.
